

Saugerties Public Library Presents

College Financial Aid: What You Need to Know about the 2017-18 FAFSA (and more!)

with former college admission director and independent educational consultant

Sandra M. Moore, M.A.

Tuesday, October 4, 2016

6 pm

Free and Open to the Public

If your high school senior is planning to apply to college this fall, please join me to learn all about the important changes to the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

The session also will include a review of how the need-based financial aid and merit scholarship processes work.

A former college admission director and the founder of Next Step College Counseling, Sandra Moore helps families throughout the Hudson Valley and beyond navigate all aspects of the college search and admission and financial aid application processes. She is a professional member of the Higher Education Consultants Association (HECA), Independent Educational Consultants Association (IECA), National Association for College Admission Counseling (NACAC), New York State Association for College Admission Counseling (NYSACAC) and the Professional Advisor Network, College Money Planner/Money Magazine. A life-long educator, she is a cum laude graduate of Mount Holyoke College, and received a master's degree from Teacher's College, Columbia University. Her blog, College Aid, is hosted on the Poughkeepsie Journal website.
